

Double Glazed Guillotine Glass System

Auto Guillotine Glass systems are specially produced according to all required measurements and are convenient and convenient to use in every area. The most developed motorized automatic window systems in the field is the guillotine guillotine glass electric motor, which is the simple automation system of the glass system. This strengthened mobility system gives the cams the ability to move evenly. The most striking feature of the guillotine glass system is the fixed glass positioned at the beginning of the system. This panel is exactly called Guillotine glass and the glasses in the system can be adjusted by keeping it at the level desired by the user.

Characteristics

Ease of installation and handling

Adjustable glass levels

Designed to resist high wind pressure and live loads

Low maintenance with easy cleaning and glass replacement

Safety precautions to prevent possible accidents

Button or key control option

Double glazing option

Advantages

Thermal Insulation

High level heat insulation and heat glass profile options.

Sound Insulation and Wind Protection

It provides 60% sound insulation. Use in adverse weather conditions.

Seamless Landscape

Seamless panorama to specially designed spaces running vertically.

Automatic Operation

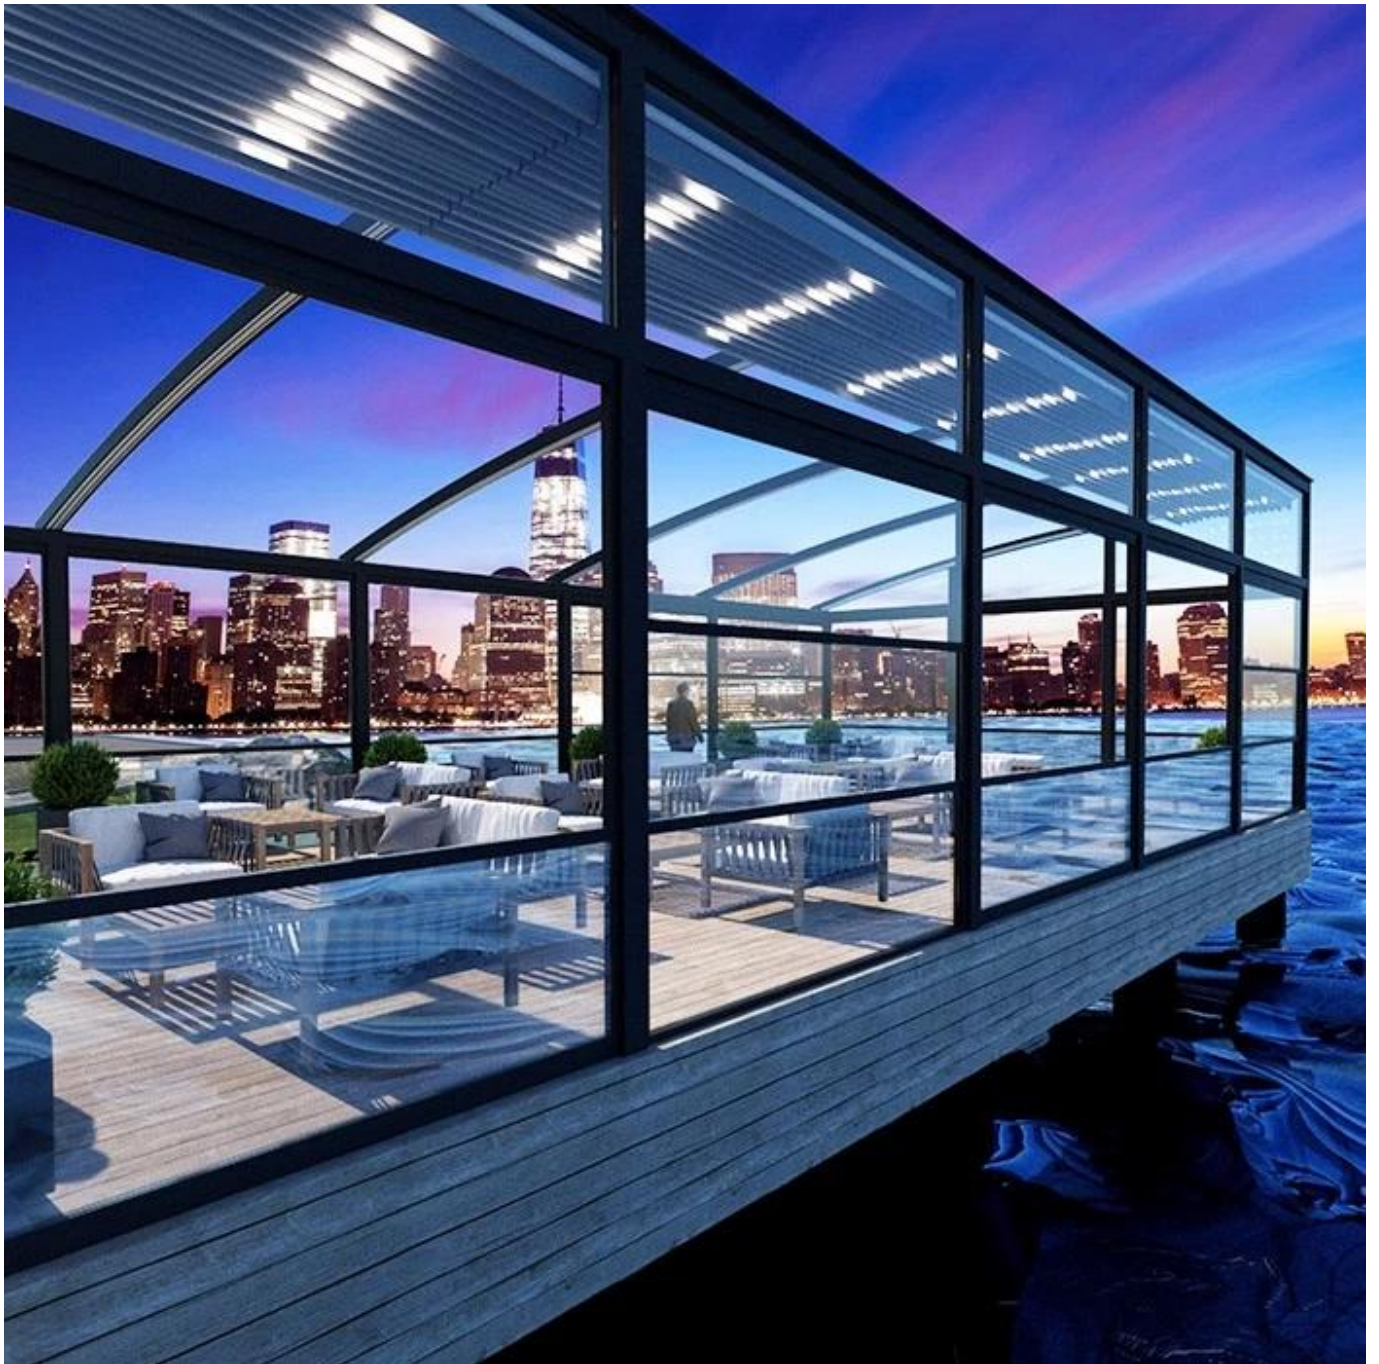

Controlled or timed on and off options.

Ventilation

Continuous ventilation in unfavorable weather conditions with the ability of glass sashes to stand in the desired place.

Freedom and Comfort

The easy to use guillotine glazing system offers a high level of comfort close to nature.

Applications

room partition

shop showcase

cafe & restaurant

french balconies

roof terraces and balconies

pool edges

winter gardens

pergola awning

Welcome to send us inquiry with your detail requirement and question.