

Frosted Shower door glass most produced with 8-12 mm frosted tempered glass. Frosted tempered glass can be divided into acid etch tempered glass and sandblasting tempered glass. Compared to clear tempered glass shower door. Frosted tempered glass shower door offer privacy as well safety. Frosted tempered glass shower door is available for light transmittance and prevent clear vision. Acid etched tempered easy to maintain clean. Customized glass size and color available.

Other glass type for shower door:

Tempered laminated glass

Clear tempered glass

Frosted tempered glass

Silk screen tempered glass

Features of frosted tempered glass door:

1.5 times stronger than annealed glass

2.No finger print , east to clean

3.It is available for light transmittance and prevent clear vision. It is also provide a privacy environment.

Acid etched tempered shower door glass VS sandblasting tempered shower door glass

Acid etched shower door glass is produced by acid frosted tempered glass door. The surface of acid tempered glass is more smooth than sandblasting tempered glass. Because acid etched frosted glass use chemical acid for surface treatment , but sandblasting frosted glass use high speed machines that blast down on the glass surface with sand. So when you touch sandblasting tempered shower door glass , you will have a rough touch feeling. But acid etched tempered shower door glass will give you a feeling of smooth. Acid etched tempered shower door glass is easy to maintain clean. Acid etched tempered glass shower door are widely used.

Quality Control:

1. In accordance with BS 6206 UK safety glass standard.

2. In accordance with EN 12150 CE European safety glass standard.

3. In accordance with CCC and ISO 9001-2015 Chinese safety glass standard.

Products Pictures:

